

Life Is A Team Sport.

You don't even have to choose sides.

But you should try to surround yourself with as much talent as possible on the field...and in your neighborhood. Encouraging and accepting diversity in your community will promote a greater sense of engagement, better prepare your children for the global community they will inhabit... give us all a richer life.

NFHA
National Fair Housing Alliance

Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of the Fair Housing Act